FRIDAY.....NOV. 30.

S. M. BOOTH, Editor.—C. VAUGHAN, Associate.

National Mass Republican Convention.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 26, '55.

S. M. BOOTH, Esq.—Dear Sir:

Before this reaches you, you will have seen the proceedings of the Know Nothing Convention in this city. They rejected the proposition of Spooner to liberalize the order and adopt the ground of no more Slave Territory and no more Slave States; they declared it was merely their purpose to try another National Convention with the South, hoping that they will agree to the restoration of the Missouri Compromise. They declared against Fusion, with all who do not adopt the proscriptive features of Know Nothingism. It is therefore evident that the Republicans must enter the Presidential contest without calculating on much aid from those who still adhere to the American organization. It is time we were preparing for a National Republican Convention. It is thought, by leading Republicans in this region, that the best way is to call a National Mass Republican Meeting at Pittsburgh, on the 22d of February, to make a declaration of our principles and purposes, to organize a National Committee and prepare to hold a Delegate Convention to nominate at as early a period as possible. It is thought the best way to give the call for the meeting at Pittsburgh on the 22d of February, is for the Republican Press throughout the country to write in recommending it. Will you aid, through the Free Democrat, in giving this call? Truly Yours,

JAMES ELLIOT.

REMARKS.—We like the suggestion of our correspondent, who is a man of standing and character among the Republicans of Cincinnati and Ohio. Such a Convention, where all Republicans are invited to meet and consult together for the best interest of Freedom, if generally responded to, would call together the largest, most earnest and determined body of men, ever gathered for such a purpose in this country. And its effect, both upon Congress and the Republican cause, would be most salutary. Mutual consultation and counsels, comparison of views and a frank declaration of principles which would commend themselves to the people, be in harmony with our free institutions and meet the exigencies of the times, would do much toward promoting a united and vigorous canvass, and might ensure a successful campaign, next fall. The East and the West, the North and the South would there meet together, and become better acquainted with each other's condition, necessities and expectations. As to a National nominating delegate Convention, we are in great doubt. We wish another might never be held. We should much prefer, if we are to have a National nominating Convention, that it should be a Mass Convention, and let all present have a voice in the selection of candidates, giving each State only as many votes as it has Presidential electors.—There would be less chance, then, of juggling and misrepresenting the wishes of the people.

Wants us to Explain.

The Fond du Lac Herald does not think we stated its position fairly, and represents the matter thus:

"You argued that Mr. Bashford was not that tower of strength, that a man more "out-spoken" on the Slavery question would have been. Our reply was, that if your argument proved anything, it proved that those candidates above named, who were "out spoken" on that subject, lost caste, by being so, from the fact that they are defeated, and Bashford elected."

A non sequitur, clearly, for this reason: that thousands of Democrats voted for Bashford, who voted the entire Democratic ticket with the exception of Barstow.

After some left-handed compliments in the true vein of the Herald, it gets off the following, which, from the context, we suppose, it intends we shall take as its opinion of us:

There are a class of men in all communities—and Milwaukee is not an exception—who are great conscience-men, so far as external appearances are concerned, yet they will step behind the curtain and sell their birth-right for a paltry consideration. They are loud-mouthed and boisterous in their professions of the principles of Freedom, and expressions of hatred of Slavery, yet every evidence is, that if they could make more money and notoriety by selling "niggers," they would be just the most industrious men in the business that could be started.

If Republicanism can flourish in Fond du Lac County, under the teachings of such a sheet, it must be of a very peculiar stripe. It is very plain that if the people who compose the Republican party partake of the spirit of the presses they patronize, and the Herald has any considerable number of patrons, and if it speaks the sentiments of that portion of the party which it represents, nothing is more certain than that the Herald and those who think us the villain, at heart, he charges us with being, should operate in a party by themselves. If the Herald has any proof of the accusation it makes, we should feel obliged to it if it would publish it. Our Anti-Slavery character was not born of the Convention of July 13, 1854, nor was it the reaction produced by swallowing and digesting Baltimore Platform, Fugitive Slave Act, and Slave-holding candidates for the Presidency.

We see no inconsistency in wishing that the Know Nothing Convention, representing the body that seceded from the Philadelphia Convention for its pro-Slavery course, had taken anti-Slavery ground. If the Fond du Lac Freeman does, its optics are keener than ours. Such action would have tended to break up the National Organization. Now, they will go over to Slavery, "hook and line, bob and sinker." It is useless now, to inquire what their influence would have been, had they taken bold anti-Slavery ground. They have joined in the refrain, "O, carry me back to Old Virginny!"

We are informed that a petition is in circulation, asking the Governor to pardon the man and woman who so brutally whipped the boy Dannan, (of Dannan monument notoriety,) to death.—Jefferson Jeffersonian.

The abuse of the pardoning power is one of the evils of Executive dispensation that needs reforming. If they did not have a fair trial, and evidence has since been adduced clearing them of the crime of which they were convicted, they should be pardoned. Otherwise not.

The Way We Spent Thanksgiving.

Having received a polite invitation from Colonel CROUNSE, of the Western Hotel, to be present at his Thanksgiving Dinner, we, (that is, the entire Editorial force, including wives and babies, and several acquaintances,) packed ourselves away in carriages, or on horseback, and dashed along the plank to the utter amazement and bewilderment of sundry verdant natives, who regarded the "imposing cavalcade," with yawning eyes and mouths. But time flew and ere long we found ourselves ensconced in various parts of the worthy Colonel's house. Our Senior played the attentive to the ladies, with all the grace imaginable. The Associate, more democratic, and probably more hungry, ingratiated himself into the affections of the cooks, with whom he conversed upon literary, political and scientific topics, (including oysters and turkeys) and came to the conclusion that—

"Where ignorance is bliss,
"Tis folly to be wise."

A dance being proposed, part of our company joined in, and though our toes, (individually speaking) are neither light nor fantastic, had quite a merry time to the music of the Colonel's venerable fiddle. As exercise is conducive to appetite, and a long abstaining from eating has a similar tendency, we grew "voracious," and a call to dinner awoke a quick response from our "inner man."

For some time we devoted ourselves assiduously to the dissection of the many good things which our kind host and hostess had spread so bountifully before us, and forgot, for the time being, whether the world was turning on its own, or borrowed axle trees.

After dinner, as it was late in the afternoon, we had our horses harnessed, and, with grateful hearts and kind adieus, left the Colonel's Hotel, wishing that he and his might enjoy many more Thanksgiving Dinners as pleasant as ours had proved. Ere we arrived in Milwaukee, the sun had disappeared adown the Western slope, and Night had drawn her sable mantle over the face of Nature, decked by the bright and twinkling stars, which seemed returning thanks to Him who made them. Our Sanctum once again entered, after a pleasant day of recreation, we devoted ourselves to the demands of duty, whilst we could not but heave a sigh to think that Thanksgiving Days and Dinners came so seldom, and flew so quickly.

KANSAS.

THOSE who suppose Slavery is to be excluded from Kansas without a struggle, are very much mistaken. Even the Free State Convention, which has just passed a Constitution and adopted a Bill of Rights, declaring "Slavery shall not exist in this State," compromised with Slavery, by recognizing its existence and permitting its continuance till July 4, 1857. The President of the Convention, Col. JAS. H. LANE, proposed to continue Slavery five years. We confess to feeling little interest in the success of a Constitution which recognizes Slavery and guaranties its existence till July, '57. For during this interim it will manage to grow strong enough to perpetuate itself. To make peace with such an enemy, is to surrender. The issue of the contest there is well expressed by Atchison, in a letter dated September 12, 1855, from Platte City, Missouri, in reply to an invitation to attend the celebration of the battle of King's Mountain:

"The stake the border ruffians are playing for is a mighty one. If Kansas is abolitionized, (i. e. made free,) Missouri ceases to be a Slave State, New Mexico becomes a free State, and California remains a free State; but if we secure Kansas a Slave State, Missouri is secure, and New Mexico and Southern California, if not all of it, becomes a Slave State; in a word, the prosperity or the ruin of the whole South depends upon the Kansas struggle."

AS WE EXPECTED.—Before election, the Argus apologized for the pro-Slavery platform of its party, and dared not assert that the election of the Democratic ticket would be an endorsement of the Pierce and Nebraska stripe of Democracy. We predicted, that if the Republican ticket was defeated, it would be claimed that the anti-Slavery principle of the Republican party was defeated. Hear now what the Argus says:

"Their [the Republicans'] principle, (they claim but one,) is emphatically repudiated, by the just intelligence of the people of the State, and true Democracy is triumphant."

Sumner, Trempeleau County, Wisconsin.

A subscriber to the FREE DEMOCRAT, writing from the above town, says:

"This is a new place, just springing into being. It is on the Prairie du Chien and Willow River Road, at the crossing of the Buffalo River, about midway between Black River Falls and the Chippewa. We have an extensive Pine ry on the North and East, and a most excellent farming country on the South and West This is one of the few places where farming and lumbering will go hand in hand.

"Consequently we have, and shall continue to have, one of the best local markets in the West. We have but few settlers as yet; but those we have are of the best quality. The great Moral and Political questions of the day find warm supporters here.

The FREE DEMOCRAT has the honor of being one of the first papers ordered to this office. We will, undoubtedly, have a Schol House in the Spring."

Utah to be a Slave State.

The special correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat writes to that paper as follows:

"I met a prominent citizen of Salt Lake City when at Weston. His name is Williams. He is the principal merchant of the Latter Day Saints; and, also, I believe, one of the twelve unholy apostles.

"I heard him say that when Utah applied for admission into the Union, she would seek to be enrolled as a Slave State. He said that he owned a slave; that all of the apostles did; and that Polygamy Brigham Young owns several negroes. This statement, though at variance with previous accounts from Utah, is undoubtedly true."

Polygamy and Slavery should go together, and those who sanction chattel Slavery should have no scruples in endorsing polygamy. Not long since, we heard a clergyman, in our office, deny that human slavery was a sin in itself, and claim for it not only great antiquity, but a Bible recognition. We submit, that this Reverend teacher is estopped, on these grounds, from preaching against polygamy, for it is as old and patriarchal and scriptural an institution as chattel Slavery.

California Arrival.

The Star of the West, arrived at New York, Nov. 28th, with California dates to the 3d of November. She reports the Isthmus clear from cholera. The Uncle Sam which arrived at San Francisco with nearly 700 passengers, and left New York October 15th, had not a single case of cholera on board.

Indian ravages are growing serious from Puget to Shasta. Butte savages had made simultaneous attacks on whites, and massacred large numbers. Volunteers were turning out in all directions, and U. S. troops under Maj. Fitzgerald had turned out in pursuit. Nearly all tribes north of Columbian River had confederated, and sworn to exterminate Americans. A band of 1,500 attacked a small force of U. S. troops at Pugent Sound under Maj. Haller, and forced them to retreat. The latter had been reinforced by 9 companies of volunteers called out by Gov. Curry and supplied with ammunition by the sloop of war Decatur and cutter Jefferson Davis and was about to resume the offensive.

A distillery of Barnet & Ashfield of San Francisco exploded, maiming and scalding a dozen men and setting fire to the premises, which were entirely destroyed.

A severe gale occurred at San Francisco, Oct. 13th. The damage appears to be on the small craft in the harbor.

Business at San Francisco during the fortnight had not been very active but was improving. Flour $15, butter 60c, pork $21. Specie shipped per steamer Senora was nearly $200,000 from the Isthmus

Nicaragua.

By the Star of the West we have some late and interesting advices from Nicaragua. Walker was in full possession. Wheeler the American Minister, had publicly acknowledged on the part of the U. S. the Independence of the government, and the kind regard and well wishes entertained by the Chief Magistrate of the United States toward it. General Carrol was detected in a treasonable correspondence with some of the officers of the late Government, tried by Court Martial and shot in the plaza on the 7th inst., 12 hours after his arrest. The court was entirely composed of Americans.—Other arrests had been made but no names given. The death of Carrol was acquiesced in by Rivas as the newly elected President. A duty of 20 per cent advalorem had been declared by the Nicaragua Government upon all foreign imports to be paid in coin.

MISSOURI LEGISLATURE.—It is said that a majority of the members of the Missouri Legislature claim their per diem for the whole of the recesses which that body has taken, one extending from the 6th of March to the 3d of April, and the other from April 4th to November 4th, making altogether nearly seven months. The State Auditor refuses to draw a warrant for the money, and a case has been argued for the decision of the Supreme Court.

The Lowell (Mass.,) Courier says that there are now sold in that city, weekly, an average of 50 through tickets for the "Far West."—Many of their best men are taking their final leave of them.

COMMERCE WITH AFRICA.—The commerce between the United States and Africa increases yearly at the rate of 50 per cent. Recently a lot of seventy-five casks of palm oil arrived at Salem, Massachusetts, destined for Louisville Kentucky. This oil is probably wanted there for the manufacture of stearine candles, for which purpose it is extensively used in this country.

Hon. Senator George E Pugh, of Ohio, was married on the 26th inst., to Miss Terese Chalfant, the "Belle of the West."—Cincinnati Express.

Take off the "Hon.," and "Belle of the West" and the paragraph will be nearer correct.

SENATORIAL.—The Jefferson Co. Republican says:

We notice in several of our exchanges, that J. A. Hadley is reported as contesting Barnes' seat in the Senate, also E. D. Masters as contesting Morrison' in the Assembly. We don't know whether Mr. Masters intends contesting the seat or not, but are assured that Mr. Hadley will, on the ground of illegal returns.

GAS.—The Watertown Chronicle of the 28th inst., says:—On Monday morning a force of about 30 men commenced ripping up Main St., on the east side of the river, for the purpose of laying the pipes for the new gas works. The work of laying the pipes will be pushed forward vigorously.

☞ Last year in Brooklyn, the inspector of election by a mere clerical error, returned four hundred and sixty-eight votes as cast for "D. D. Culver," which were in fact cast for him by his full name, and the inspector appeared at the board with affidavits showing the mistake and Judge Culver asked that they might correct it; but the very magnanimous Board of Canvassers refused the request, rejected the four hundred and sixty eight votes and declared another man elected. But, on Monday last, a judgement was rendered in the Supreme Court, Kings county, Mr. Justice Rockwell, declaring Judge Culver entitled to the office of City Judge of Brooklyn, and to the fees and franchise thereof, and that he has been so entitled since the first day of May, 1855.

WASHINGTON.—More than fifty members of Congress have arrived. The Republicans and Fusionists among them, have already consulted together, and express their readiness to meet in a Caucus, for the nomination of officers of the, House with all the opponents of the Administration, irrespective of political issues.

The anti-Slavery Americans will, it is said, positively refuse to meet their non-Intervention brethern in caucus as a distinctive party, while several Democrats threaten that if in democratic caucus, the support of the Kansas-Nebraska act shall be insisted on as a test of their orthodoxy, they will withdraw from the party.

IS IT JUST?—The Watertown Democrat, of yesterday, publishes a table of returns by counties, in which it places Oconto 150 majority for Barstow, when the official, giving but 33 majority for Barstow, was published so as to reach that paper, at least, last Monday. And this is but a specimen of its figures. Does not this look like a design to mislead the public?

Lake Superior.

The Steamer North Star arrived at Cleveland Saturday Evening, from her last trip to Lake Superior, having been absent nineteen days.—She encountered the heavy seas known on no other inland lake but Superior driving snow and ice. Into one of the harbors she went feeling her way by the lead, the snow falling so thick that landmarks were of no use, and through Mud Lake, and Lake George, she ploughed her way through ice an inch thick. She was three times driven for shelter, from Ontonagon to La Pointe, and even there was compelled to take wood from Mackinac boats. Her down freight was a cargo of fish, 56¼ tons of copper for Detroit: 18 tons of copper, and 33 tons iron ore for Cleveland. Among the Detroit freight was a mass of copper 2800 lbs., containing 70 per cent of pure copper from CARSON'S new mine in Evergreen Bluff.

On the night of the 17th, the steamboat Superior, bound down, lost overboard two deck hands, names not reported. The Superior has been overdue at Milwaukee for several days, and some anxiety is felt in regard to her. It is feared that she and the steamer Planet will be ice bound, in Lake Superior.

The Superior Chronicle, of Nov 6th bids good bye to "gentle breezes and steamboats," and hails the approach of "snow and ice, bears and snow-shoes." It contains an exhortation to the "democracy" to vote for the democratic ticket and announces the probability of a new pier and dock at Superior City, during the next season.

The Ontonagon Miner, of Nov. 10th, has an interesting article upon the mines in the vicinity of Ontonagon. From it we learn that during the month of October the Minnesota mine raised one hundred and thirty-four tons, and 1268 lbs of copper. Most of the other prominent mines are represented as having excellent prospects.

Hon. G. D. Williams, of Saginaw, one of the Indian paying agents, reports that quite recently he chartered the schooner Algonquin at La Pointe and went over to the north shore of Lake Superior to pay off about seven hundred Chippewas who reside near Grand Portage, within a few miles of the national boundary between the United States and Canada. While there he became acquainted with the Bois Torte Indians, a tribe who, as their name denotes, inhabit the "thick wood" or heavy timbered lands near Pigeon river. The main subsistence of this tribe is upon the wild rice which grows luxuriantly in that vicinity. This crop is sometimes cut off by some vicissitude, and when this happens these Indians are frequently distressed for food, as the chase is uncertain and game scarce. The last winter was a peculiarly hard one, and in the course of it this tribe were reduced to the revolting and horrible strait of eating their own children, which they did to the extent of almost extermination. He saw and conversed with two women of the tribe, one of whom had given up two and another three children, successively, to be slain and eaten. We had hardly supposed that cannibals existed so near our very borders.

The winter has regularly "set in" on Lake Superior, and that country will be, to all practical purposes, isolated from civilization for the ensuing six months. The whole region is amply furnished with supplies, if we except flour, and there will be no suffering for a want of provisions, as there has been heretofore. All the mails hereafter will be brought overland by teams, Indians and dog trains.

KANSAS.—A Pro-slavery Convention was held at Leavenworth on the 14th inst. President Pierce's new Governor, Shannon, was President; Stringfellow, Secretary. The strongest kind of Slavery resolutions were passed. Does anybody doubt now where Shannon stands?

NEW LIQUOR LAW IN MAINE.—The portland Advertiser states that Judge Welle, the Democratic and liberal candidate for Governor of Maine, has nearly completed the draft of a new liquor law to be submitted to the approching legislature. It is understood to contain all the principles of the old license laws.

THE UPPER MISSISSPPI.—Above Galena, navigation may be considered closed. The last boat from Galena, North, got only as far as La Crosse, when the floating ice became so thick that further progress was impossible; she landed her Minnesota freight at that place and turned back.

A bill has been introduced into the Legislature of Tennessee, to compel all free persons of color in the State to emigrate to Liberia or elsewhere beyond the limits of the State.

THE CZAR'S BROTHER.—A writer in the Tribune, on the subject of Russia, says that the Grand Duke Constine is a short, thin, light-complexioned, impudent, dandyish-looking man, who carries a lorgnette to his eye and looks impatiently at everybody. He is irritable, and without doubt possesses more character than his brother, the Emperor.

Longfellow's new "Song of Hiawatha" is attracting the attention of the Press in all quarters. Some of the critics are condemning it very severely, and others contend that it possesses great merit.

An advertisement appears in the Louisville Courier, with the cut of a negro on one side, and that of a horse on the other. These "animals," are offered for sale, "on terms to suit purchasers, and "can be be seen at the stable on Sixth street."

IMPORTANT PROCLAMATIONS.—A few days after the marriage of Thomas F. Meagher, the following notice appeared in the Boston (Mass.) Atlas:

"Follow the example of the patriot Meagher and rush to arms! Become at once, United Irishmen! P. S. The London Times will please copy."

FORTUNATE ACCIDENTS.—John Tyler was accidentally made the President of the United States; he accidentally met a handsome woman, named Gardiner, and married her; and it has just been accidentally discovered that she has fallen heir to about $500,000 left by a deceased relative in England.

THE Galena Advertiser, of the 27th instant, says that C. C. Washburn, member of Congress from that District, accompanied by his brother Hon. E. B. Washburn, member of Congress from the Galena District, Ill., were to leave that morning for Washington.

Watertown Items.

We glean the following items from the Watertown Democrat:

An improvement every way desirable and very much needed in this city, is a well arranged and properly fitted-up public hall, for holding meetings, attending lectures, and hearing concerts. The room, or place for it, we have already, and it is sufficiently large and commodious for all ordinary purposes, but it is most miserably furnished, or more correctly speaking, is not furnished at all.

PORK ON FOOT.—Several large droves of hogs have recently passed through this city to Milwaukee, or some eastern market. Most of these "travelling grunters" appear to be in excellent condition, and of the best breeds.—They were fat and plump, ready for the slaughter house.

We see no reason why a course of lectures could not be sustained in this place. Our city is now easily accessible by Railroad, and we have the numbers sufficient to do it.

A firm of produce dealers in this city, last Saturday purchased a drove of 260 hogs, sent them to Milwaukee on the next train and sold them at a profit of $300.

Shipped by Rail Road from Watertown for the week ending Nov. 27th, 10,854 bush. wheat, 252 bush. barley; 200 bush. grass seed; 90 bush corn; 1,102 bbls flour; 88 sacks ditto; 70 bbls pork; 391 hogs; 12 bbls poultry; 5 bbls lard; 22 empty bbls; 48 hides; 26 bbls iron; 45 boxes sundries.

A NEW SWINDLE.—A man signing himself S. A. Fisher, advertised in the New York papers for a competent person to take charge of a mill in New Jersey. A young man applied, the salary was fixed upon, and they parted to meet again in the evening. Fisher, meanwhile asserting that he would see the young man's references. In the evening, he declared these all right and the bargain consummated, at the same time telling him to be at the R. R. Depot early the next morning, and handing him a bill of $30 to collect that evening of a man in the Bowery. Happening to discover that he left his watch at home and having business that required promptness at the time he secured the loan of the young mans. This trick he performed on several. He has not since been heard of—his bill is bogus, and his mill, nowhere.

MORMONISM.—An official statement has been published at Salt Lake City, by George A. Smith, the Church Historian, showing the latest facts of interest connected with the progress of Mormonism. According to it, the Church has about ninety-five Missionaries in Europe, and an equal number in Asia, Africa, and the Pacific Isles, besides a large number of native elders in the various fields of labor, and also a considerable number scattered throughout the United States and British America. Of newspapers and periodicals, the Church has—of the former, one in Salt Lake City, issuing 4,000 copies weekly, one in New York; one in Liverpool, issuing 22,000 weekly copies; one in Swansea, South Wales; one in Copenhagen, in the Danish language; one in Australia; and one in India.

☞ Sir William Codrington, the new Commander-in-chief of the English army in the Crimea, is a son of Sir Edward Codrington, who commanded at the famous battle of Navarino in 1827. He is about fifty years old. He went to the Crimea as a volunteer, and without military command. While at Varna he was promoted to command a Division, which he led with distinction at the battle of the Alma. He is more popular with the army than either of their previous Generals.

—The Circuit Court of Richmond Va., decided a few days ago that the New Orleans Telegraph Company was liable for an error in a message by which 2,500 bales of cotton were forwarded when only 500 had been ordered.—The Telegraph Company has been mulcted in $7,300, but an appeal has been taken to a higher court.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.—A young lady, Miss Mary Shaffer, about fifteen years of age, was recently burned to death in Baltimore, Maryland. It seams that being a nurse in the family in which she resided, she had taken the children she had in charge to bed, and sitting down near a table upon which she had placed a camphene lamp fell asleep, and by some means overturned the lamp into her lap was soon enveloped in flames, when rushing out into the street she was discovered, the air caused the flames to spread over her person with such rapidity as to defy all efforts to save her.

The Post Master General has issued an order requiring stamps to be put upon letters before they are put in the Post office.

A Washington dispatch states that the President's Message will be withheld as long as possible, in order to embrace the latest intelligence from Europe. It will not even be printed until after the organization of the House of Representatives.

A verdict of two hundred dollars and costs, for libel, has been obtained against the New York Tribune, by Jacob Lewis, an advertizing solicitor for some of the other New York papers.

I is said that the plan of the Allies now is, after taking possession of the Crimea and as much of the Black Sea coast as is necessary, to march a large force into Bessarabia, and to try to penetrate near enough to Poland to alarm Russia.

Died in Peekskill, on Saturday the 27th ult., Mrs. Serrine, widow of Major John Paulding, one of the captors of Major John Andre, aged 71.

Col. Collier, of Stubenville, Ohio, has received, from San Francisco, a vest made from the first peice of Japanese silk imported into this country direct from that Empire.

Governor Johnson, of Georgia, has appointed a Commissioner to examine into the affairs of the Atlanta Bank. Whether it will be whitewashed or not, cannot be told.

NEW YORK.—The Legislature stands:

Senate—	Repub. 17.	Dem. 4.	K. N.'s	11
House—	" 42.	" 48.	"	38.

The Legislature of South Carolina assembled on Monday. The Governor's Message is a brief document, and relates wholly to State matters.

The deprature of the next Calafornia mail steamer is delayed by the government, in order that it may take out the President's Message, should the House be organized by that time.

The Varieties.

FAREWELL BENEFIT OF MISS LAURA BENTLEY.—We are in hopes to see, the theatre crowded, this evening, on the occasion of MISS BENTLEY'S benefit. As an actress, she has won the admiration of the theatre going public, and deserves to receive something that will be at once flattering and substantial.—Miss BENTLEY is a hard student, and is unquestionably destined to occupy a high position in the profession she has chosen. Let those who love the drama, and wish to encourage rising genius, go to the Varieties to-night, so that Miss Bentley's farewell benefit in Milwaukee, may be one she will ever remember with pride and gratification.

Mr. Van Liew's Company leave next week for Madison, and consequently will give but two more performances in this city.

Marine Disasters.

The propeller Saginaw, which arrived here on Wednesday, brought news of the following marine accidents:

The schooner Hope, loaded with wheat by Sanderson & Pirie, of this city, and owned by Bruce & Wells, of Buffalo, went ashore on Wednesday of last week, at Beaver Island harbor, and is a total wreck vessel and cargo—cargo insured for $16,500, in the Milwaukee and Buffalo Mutuals; vessel, in the Ocean and Atlas Companies.

The schooner Crescent, with a cargo of 400 tons merchandize, is ashore at the North Fox, below the Manitou Islands. She is sunk on a rocky bottom, and will probably be a total loss—insured for $6,000 in the Chicago Mutual, and was purchased last spring by R. Meadowcraft, of Chicago, for $9,000; cargo mostly insured in the Ætna and Hartford Insurance Companies, and much of it will be saved in a damaged condition.

In the same gale the propeller Nile was damaged in her upper works, and some of her deck load of flour stove in.

LANSING BONNEL lets the readers of the Free Democrat know, that if people want to buy stoves, he can furnish them as good and as cheap as anybody. His is the largest Stove Warehouse in Wisconsin.

—A venerable sow, whose years should have taught her better, exhibited cannabalistic propensities, this morning, which reflected anything but credit upon her humanity. She seized a little child about four years old, on 2nd street near Johnson's lumber-yard, and ran with it some distance, and was just in the act of tasting the innocent's flesh, when Mr. Page came to the rescue and succeeded in taking the child, unhurt, from the infuriated animal.

☞ The Milwaukee Musical Society give their 59th concert, at Young's Hall, this evening.

MARRIAGES.

RUGEE—PALMER.—In Wooster, Ohio, on the 22d inst., by Rev. R. Pope, Mr. JOHN RUGEE, of Milwaukee, to Miss MALVINA C. PALMER, of the former place.

We wish the joyous couple all the bliss possible to mortals. The bridegroom we endorse for unhesitatingly, and if he has really found his mate, there is the strongest human guaranty, in their case for earthly happiness.

THE OPINION OF A LADY,
Who knows Mr. WEVER, and has bought Goods at WEVER'S
DRY GOODS PALACE!!
—AND—
CARPET ROOMS.
158 East Water Street.

COME to the Palace, oh, come there with me,
Where Fashion, 'mid splendor, still holds her levee,
And some body tells you that Beauty is sold
To Youth or to Age, in exchange for gold;
And their Lady-like charms through life may prolong,
In robes like a Queen's, which sell for a song.
They've Shawls for the taste, and Shawls for the storm;
They've Cloaks which fall softly, so rich, and so warm;
They've Carpets of Wilton, of Velvet, and Brussels;
They've Laces, and Broideries, Ribbons, and Tassels;
They've sombre-hued Goods, for the weeping and sad;
They've suits like the sunshine, for merry and glad;
They've fabrics for millions and hold their levee
For those who pay tribute, or some but to see.
If Palace of Dry Goods, so wondrous grand,
Can be aught but a fable, of old Fairyland;
But those who know WEVER, can't doubt for a minute
This glorious Palace, and all that is in it
Yours, C. H. G.

Now I blush, indeed I do. What modest, married man would not? Yet I console myself with the idea that Beauty always pays tribute to Worth and Merit. Thanking sincerely yet humbly my fair contributor, I trust that by honesty, uprightness and my gentlemanly bearing, I may ever command her respect.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE, 1855-6.
THE TRIBUNE IS NOW IN THE MIDDLE OF ITS fifteenth year; Volume XV. of its weekly issue commenced on the 1st of September last. The American public need not now be made acquainted with its character or claims to consideration. With but a subordinate regard for prudence, policy or popularity, it has aimed to stand for Right-cousness, for Truth, for Humanity, against Fortified Iniquity, Fraud and Oppression.—There is not a slave trader on this Continent, though he may never read anything but his bills of sale and notes payable, who does not know and hate the TRIBUNE;—there is not an extensive fat man or of drugged and poisoned Lagers, who does not consider it a very dangerous enemy; commercial paper, and wonders why its publication is tolerated in a commercial, cotton-buying city like New York. The Newark Mercury once forcibly remarked that it had never known a base, pilfering, scrawling, avaricious employer who was not hostile to the TRIBUNE, nor one eminently generous and kindly who did not like it. Prompt and plain-spoken in its denunciations of iniquity and abuse of power, while claiming no exemption from human fallibility, it has never done temporary injustice to individuals, but it has never been unfaithful to Principle, nor deaf to the cries of the wronged and suffering. In its columns the advocates of novel and unpopular theories, contemplating the melioration of human woes, especially those of the voiceless and down-trodden, have ever found audience and hospitality; while it has ardently resisted, and will persistently combat, every attempt to proscribe and degrade any class because of diversities of Nativity, Creed or Color.
In defiance of calumnies the most atrocious, and of hostilities the most deadly and unfiling, the TRIBUNE has grown steadily in public appreciation from the day of its origin. Its means of serving the public have been augmented in proportion. Instead of a single editor with one or two assistants, its organization now comprises a numerous body of writers, each gifted by special accomplishment and experience for the particular line of discussion to which his pen is devoted; the daily amount of reading matter given more than quadruples that of its earliest issues; a staff of valued correspondents encircles the globe, transmitting early and intelligent narrations of whatever is most worthy of attention; while Politics, Legislation, Literature, Art, History—in short, whatever affects the social well being of mankind, Polemic Theology alone excepted—finds here the freest and most considerate discussion.

PIANO FORTES, MELODEONS AND MUSICAL GOODS!

AT NO. 175 EAST WATER STREET.

THE SUBSCRIBER IS NOW RECEIVING AN EXtensive stock of superb Pianos, and other Musical Instruments, selected by himself from the best manufactories in the United States, and warranted equal to any in the world.

He would particularly invite the attention of the Musical public to an Entire New Style of Piano Forte, invented and perfected by the late Jonas Chickering, and called the Parlor Grand, or Cecilian Piano.—This is probably the most perfect instrument of the Piano kind ever created, combining as it does all the peculiarities of the tail Grand Piano, without its disadvantages in regard to size. Also, several of Boardman & Gray's Improved Scale Pianos, with their new and ingenious invention—the Patent Corrugated Sounding board, universally admired and recommended by the musical profession. Twelve Gold Medals and Premiums have been awarded to these instruments within a few years past, and the demand for them from all parts of the world is entirely unprecedented.

☞Every instrument sold by the subscriber has either been made expressly for him, or has been carefully selected from large stocks. He is therefore enabled to warrant his Piano Fortes in every particular, as being represented by none.

☞The subscriber is the only agent in this city for the following Piano makers:

CHICKERING & SONS, Boston.
BOARDMAN & GRAY, Albany.
W. P. EMERSON, Boston.
FIRTH, POND & CO., New York.

☞Pianos the same as if purchased directly from the Manufacturer, and the money refunded if the Instrument does not prove satisfactory.

THE OLD EAGLE GOING IT WITH A RUSH

The Eagle
STEAM FOUNDRY
OF
TURTON & SERCOMB,
296, 298, 300, 302 and 304, West Water Street

IS still in full blast, working day and night to supply the daily increasing wants of the Badger and other States.

In order the better to do this the proprietors have erected a large brick Foundry in addition to their former premises. They have added to their stock of Tools a large Planeing Machine or Shaping Machine, three Lathes, and a machine for making bolts, and are now putting in a Steam Engine of—horse power to drive the whole, thereby adding to their former facilities for the successful carrying on of the Foundry, Machine, Engine, and Blacksmithing business. They never were in a better position for doing business, and defy competion in any department.

In regard to the character of the work got up by this, The Oldest Establishment in the State, the Proprietors refer to the fact in successful operation thro' the country as their best recommendation, as it can speak for itself. All they can say is, that they are both PRACTICAL MECHANICS, and know how work should be done as well as the next man. They continue to manufacture Flour and Saw Mill Gearing and Steam Engines, on the most approved principle.

They have always on hand a large stock of BRASS WORK, such as Gauge and Cylinder Cocks, Oil Cups & Cocks, and Steam Whistles. Also Turton's Files, which they will sell at the lowest cash prices.

They are also Agents for Eastman's Patent Steam Gauges, which are well worth the attention of all who use Steam Engines.

In conclusion, they invite a continued share of the patronage of their old friends, and solicit a call from all those in want of Saw or Flouring Mill Work, assuring them that no exertions will be spared to render the Old Eagle worthy of the reputation it has already gained.

Their motto is, "Excelsior."
